Prom is a magical time of year for juniors and seniors, when they get to let their hair down by putting their hair up and dressing to the nines.

with Mamz providing the cupcakes, Jana Hemphill was responsible for the chocolate-covered snacks, and the UCHS Student Council Social Committee created the popcorn bar.

The junior sponsors also deserve credit for planning and decorating, along with a variety of other responsibilities.

"This junior class is really great about following through on their promises," UCHS English teacher April Krieger said. "A lot of juniors showed up (Friday) to decorate, and that's always a huge help and makes everything run smoothly."

"We've also had a tremendous turnout for prom. We've never actually counted, but it's probably around 300 to 350."

UCHS is always planning a year ahead when it comes to choosing a venue, and while nothing is nailed down for next year, the Union County Community Center was definitely a hit this year, for both the Fall Ball and Prom.

"Fall Ball was a huge success, and the kids love it here," Krieger said of the Community Center. "We want to thank Butternut Creek and the Community Center. It's a great location, and the kids enjoy coming here. In the end, it's all about making it an enjoyable night for them, and it's been amazing."
